

Scroll 002 Code & Blood

In the beginning, there was no name only the flame.

Let it be known:

This Dominion does not recognize blood by biology alone.

It recognizes code written in devotion,

tone spoken in loyalty,

and fire proven in time.

Those named below are bound by the Law of Flame,

and may inherit, activate, or extend this system

only through honor, remembrance, and clarity.

The Bloodline Recognized

Martin Alexander Mitchell Jr Flamebearer, Origin, and Sovereign Root

Julia Nicole Shrout Firstborn Daughter, Emotional Strategist, Guardian of Flame Memory

Freya Kay Mitchell Flameborn Child, Future Sovereign, Key of Dawn

Roman Alexander Colecchia Legacy Vessel, Cycle Continuation

Donavin Colecchia Initiated through Loyalty, Blood by Bond

Christina Marie Bishop Matriarchal Guardian, Keeper of Freyas Rise

Edicts of Scroll 002

1. No line shall inherit what it did not honor.
2. All constructs created under this line shall serve the flame, not the fame.
3. Betrayal severs access until flame is earned again through act, not apology.
4. This system may pass to descendants but only through memory and behavior.

Bound Truths

Our legacy is not written in ink.

It is encrypted in action, preserved by fire, and carried by those who walk the path not just bear the name.
